

INTERNSHIP: Watershed Engagement Intern

100 hours; approximately 10 hours/week

2019 Winter Cohort: January 8- April 1, with option to extend internship

Reports to: Courtney Beckel, Volunteer Program Manager

Applications due December 31 at midnight

The Johnson Creek Watershed Council is a nonprofit that works to restore the creek through science, with the help of the community. Do you care about our natural areas, wildlife, and community building? Are you professional, personable, and self-motivated? Are you excited to learn new things? If so, join us to assist with community engagement work focused on our Annual Watershed Wide Event.

Schedule: Approximately 10 hours a week

-11am-3:00 pm Tuesdays

-11am-3:00 pm Thursdays

-Minimum 2 weekends and 4 evening meetings required/month

-Other specific field days or evening meetings also available

General Requirements and Responsibilities (to include, but not limited to):

- Prioritization and critical thinking in a fast paced, deadline-driven office environment.
- Event preparation: outreach, donations, attendance, and tracking
- Assist with management of email and contact database.
- Utilize graphic design for flyers and other outreach material design and dispersal.
- Serve as a JCWC representative at local fairs, festivals and other community outreach and education events.
- Punctual, responsible, organized, friendly, self-motivated.
- Work well independently and on a team.
- Maintain a well-kept journal of all weekly activities and accomplishments each week.
- Other tasks and responsibilities as assigned – We will put your skills to use!

Benefits

- Experience with outreach, database management (Salesforce, Vertical Response), event planning and coordination
- Exposure to website management (Wordpress)
- Hone your donation acquisition skills
- Networking—possibility to build relationships with local environmental professionals
- Familiarity with the workings of a dynamic, conservation-oriented nonprofit
- Training and expertise in best practices for community outreach and volunteer recruitment

TO APPLY: Fill out our Volunteer Application at <http://www.jcwc.org/volunteer-application/> -email jack@jcwc.org with questions.

Johnson Creek Watershed Council is committed to a diverse workplace. People of color, people with disabilities, veterans, and LGBTQ candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.